

PROOF OF AGE AND NAME CHANGE

In order to process your pension application, the Plan must receive proof of your age and documentation of all changes to your current name from your birth name as shown on your proof of your age documents.

For proof of a name change or changes, please submit copies of your marriage certificate(s), divorce decree(s), or other legal documentation which shows the change from your birth name to your current name.

For proof of age, one or more of the documents listed below must be submitted. The documents are in the preferred order of proof, the first being the most convincing proof and each following being less convincing. You should submit the most convincing proof of age available. Additional proof of age may be requested if the document submitted is not convincing.
